

Our New Home

The Irish Cultural Center of Western New England has moved to our new home at 429 Morgan Road in West Springfield, MA.

The large multi-level building is located in a pastoral setting on 10 acres of land. The facility enables the ICC to establish a place to gather, providing an even broader range of cultural offerings. It includes administrative offices and meeting areas, a traditional Irish restaurant and pub, and grounds.

Renovations will continue over the next year, and will include the restoration of a performance center and banquet hall, museum and library, and athletic playing fields.

We continue moving forward, expanding our event offerings, Patron benefits and community outreach, thus fulfilling our promise of keeping the Irish arts and culture alive. We value our Patrons and thank you for your support!
